

MOUNTAIN SHADOWS HYMN

Betty Bowers McMurry, 2003

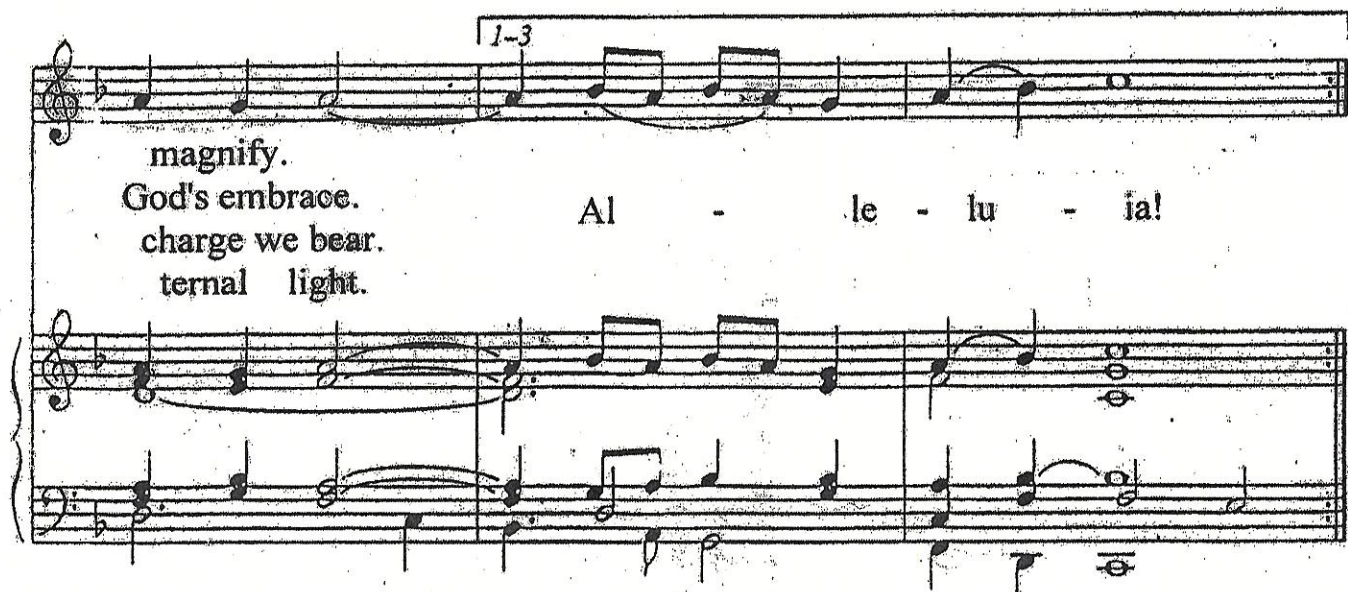

Charles Villiers Stanford, 1904

1. Where shadowed mountains meet the desert sky, We gather
2. There are no strangers in this sacred place, We welcome
3. We bring our sorrows and our joys to share, We feel God's
4. When deepening shadows tell the coming night, We'll live in as the church to glo - if - fy the Lord our God whose name we every gender, age, and race to join our fel- low- ship in presence as we bow in prayer. To show Christ's love is now the faith sustained by God's great might. And know the peace of God's emagnify.

1-3
God's embrace. Al - le - lu - ia!
charge we bear.
ternal light.

4
Al - le - lu - ia! A - men.