

Join our musicians in worship and for other events!

- Having a joy for making music to enhance the worship experience is the primary requirement for participation. Limited ability to read music is helpful but not required.

Choir -- Rehearsal is Thursday afternoon at 3:00 PM. Soloists additionally rehearse a half-hour before the choir rehearsal, as well as with the choir. In addition, the choir rehearses just before worship service at 9:00 AM on Sunday.

Handbells -- The group plays at special occasions (e.g., Christmas, Easter). In the few weeks prior to the event, the group rehearses on Tuesday mornings at 11:00 AM for an hour. NOTE: The rehearsal schedule is flexible in that if members have a conflict, the rehearsal time may be changed.

Instrumentalists -- Rehearsal of the "band" is Thursday afternoon at 3:00 PM with the choir and a half-hour or so after the choir rehearsal. In addition, the band rehearses just before worship service at 9:00 AM on Sunday. The band is composed of musicians that play whenever they are able. The band is composed of: Accordion, clarinet, lap drum, flute, harp, tambourine, and trombone.
