ICE CREAM SUNDAY!

July 2, 2023
11:15 AM – 12:30 PM

After worship, start your Fourth of July week off with ice cream and music!

Sit under the Ramada and enjoy a variety of yummy ice cream that will be provided by Licks Ice Cream & Coffee, from nearby Catalina. In addition, there will be special musical guests that will keep the spirit lively and fun!

Even though the day's fellowship hour was a central focus, much happened during the worship service. Two new members (Lissa W and Cindy B) were presented to the congregation, a special guest musician (clarinetist Denise S) provided wonder music. In addition, the Peanut Butter tower continued to rise in the Narthex while food donations were received as part of our monthly "First is for Food" campaign.

TODAY ON THE RAMADA!

ICE CREAM SUNDAY!

MUSIC!

Narthex Announcement of Today's Activities – A new display is prepared every week by Steven C.

Peanut Butter Tower – Narthex display of donated 16-oz jars for Interfaith Community Services.

Special guest musician – Denise S playing clarinet throughout the service.

New Members – Lissa W and Cindy B being presented by Pastor Rachel to the congregation.

Monthly "1st is for Food" – The congregation generously donated food items to Tri-Community Food Bank.

Fellowship Instruction – Dan E provided the congregation with an overview of how best to get to the ice cream and to enjoy the music.

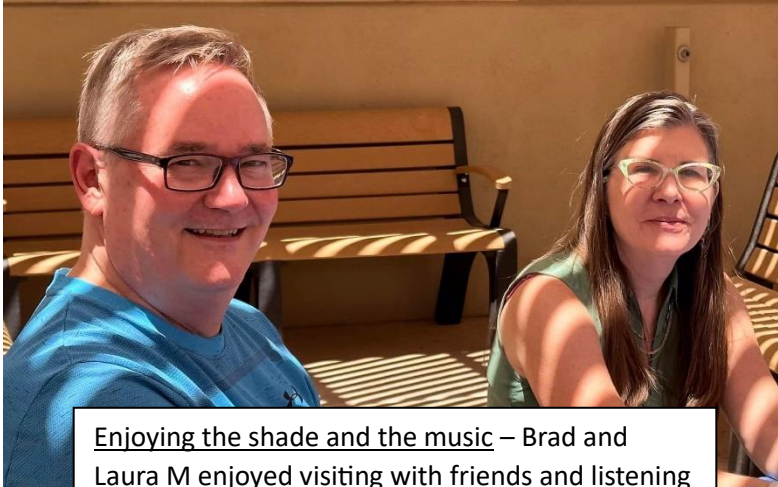

Lick's Ice Cream servers – The wonderful staff of Lick's Ice Cream and Coffee in Catalina dipped the generous portions of ice cream for all.

Lining up for ice cream – The congregation anxiously waited in line for one of the four yummy flavors of ice cream.

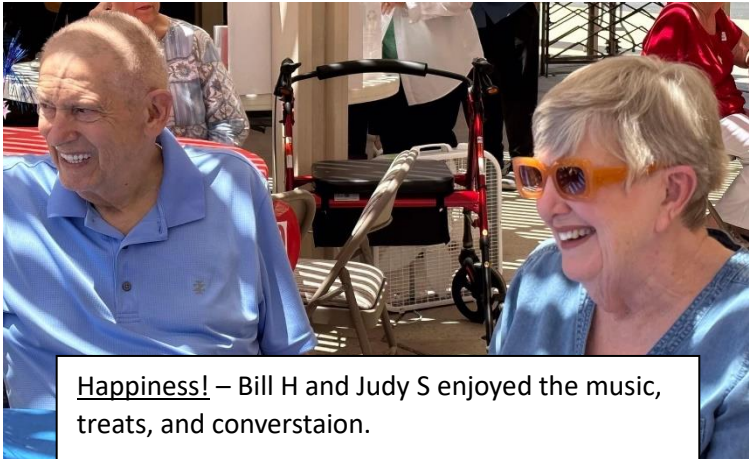

Enjoying a cupcake – Madeline B had a big smile as she was getting ready to eat one of the items in the table setting that was made of cupcakes.

Enjoying the shade and the music – Brad and Laura M enjoyed visiting with friends and listening to the music.

Waving and smiling! – Roberta D and Judy H were all smiles during the celebration.

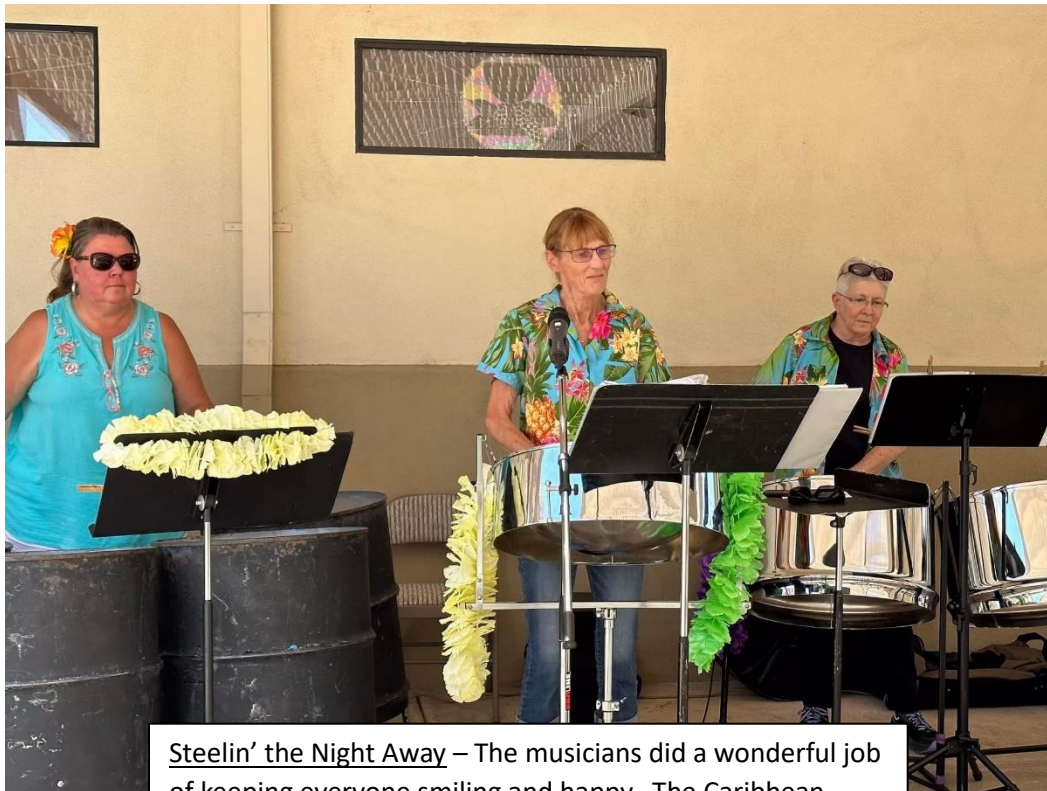

Happiness! – Bill H and Judy S enjoyed the music, treats, and conversation.

Patriotic and happy! – Jeff M was dressed for the upcoming Independence Day holiday and happy to be at the Fellowship celebration.

A comfortable afternoon – Although it was hot, the shade (and fans) under the ramada helped provide added enjoyment for the approximately 70 participants.

Steelin' the Night Away – The musicians did a wonderful job of keeping everyone smiling and happy. The Caribbean styling helped keep the smiles on everyone's face!
