The Event

It's time to discover how we are the church on the border through stories. Join us for this story-telling festival that will include music, dinner, auction and community stories. The event begins at 4 PM with mariachi, auction and exhibits. Sonoran style dinner with vegetarian options will be served at 5:45 PM .

At 7 PM the story-telling will begin as you hear from a diverse set of people from around the borderlands about what church means to them.

Individual Tickets - $25
Group tickets of 8 - $160
Kids under 13- Free
